Andrew Kim

(804)370-3830   andrew.sunglae.kim@gmail.com   andrewsunglaekim.github.io

Summary

Passionate full stack web developer with strong interpersonal skills that enables others and myself to achieve results and exceed expectations.

Technical Skills

Languages: Ruby, JavaScript, SQL, JSON, API integration, HTML & CSS/SASS

Libraries/Frameworks: Rails, Sinatra, Wordpress, jQuery, underscoreJS, backboneJS, rSpec, Jasmine

Version Control/ Deployment: Git, Github, Heroku

Methodologies: MVC, OOP, TDD, REST, Agile methodologies

Web Development

03/2015 - current

General Assembly   Washington, DC

Web Development Immersive Junior Instructor

Upon finishing the course, I was selected to become an instructor at General Assembly for the web development immersive starting in March. I learn core philosophies of adult learning theory as well as lesson planning and delivery. Course description can be seen below.

General Assembly   Washington, DC

Experience

10/2014 - 02/2015

Full-Time Web Development Immersive

Web Development Immersive that focuses on industry common best practices in object oriented design and programming. Course highlights MVC frameworks, data modeling, test driven development , and agile methodologies in order for individuals to develop a portfolio and collaborate with peers.

Projects:

- Small Time Grocer, an organizational tool for small grocery store and convenience store owners. Individual Project(Sinatra, postgreSQL)
- Drizzly, a weather app that gets weather information based on IP and search inputs through AJAX calls. Group Project(Rails, postgreSQL, Weather Underground API, Javascript/jQuery)
- Trendster, a quiz game app that updates its database through background workers. Group Project(Rails, Twitter Rest API, postgreSQL, heroku scheduler, Javascript/jQuery)

Work Experience   US Army   JBLM, WA

| 06/2011 - 07/2013 | Tactical Operations Command NCO, Squad Leader |

- Managed Tactical Operations Command in support of a 9 month deployment to Afghanistan in 2012. Tracked entire battalion battle space, while providing logistical support and base defense operations for Zabul Provincial Headquarters
- Supervised and mentored 10 Soldiers overseeing their professional development, performance reviews and well-being
- Maintained control of equipment in excess of $1,000,000 without incident, implemented training at the battery level and advised commander on all Chemical Biological Radiological Nuclear and Explosive(CBRNE) matters.

| 05/2007 - 06/2011 | US Army | Fort Campbell, KY |

Truck Commander, CBRNE NCO, Squad Leader

- Supervised and mentored 12 soldiers overseeing their professional development, performance reviews and well-being
- Acted as truck commander for over 300 missions in support of a 12 month deployment to Afghanistan from 2010-2011. Trained Afghan National Army forces in an effort to conduct join task force operations.
- Provided tactical support as a driver and gunner in support of a 15 month deployment to Iraq from 2007-2009

Education

General Assembly Web Development Immersive (10/2014 - current)
  General Assembly, Washington, DC
Associates in General Studies (University of Phoenix 2013 - 2014)
  University of Phoenix, Phoenix, AZ
Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (2003-2005)